Oh No Noh plays music in a setup that's just as unconventional as it's complex. Undulating Lofi-soundscapes embedded in rattle beats played by mechanisms. A bundle of Ambient, Kraut, Minimal Music and Electronica.

Solenoids, turned into robots play Oh No Noh's programmed rhythms and let them become traceable for the audience. Guitar patterns and -loops crisscross the arrangements, shrouded by samples and field-recordings, born into the planned aleatory of an unsyncable tape deck.

Markus Rom is protagonist and alter ego of this long-term experiment. Comments by the audience describe the music of Oh No Noh as „soundtrack for the ending of a planet“ or as „a machine, with the sole purpose of a lifelong repair“.

Oh No Noh's selftitled EP enters new realms in the field of live-looping, nimbly shapeshifting between electronic and analog spheres.

Athmospheric music for fans of Notwist, Hainbach, John Cage and Nils Frahm. Apposite to all the special features of this unique project, the EP will be released on audio cassette.
